S. Josaphat, B.M.

AT PRIME

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe.

✠ O God make speed to save me.

✠ O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Alleluia.

Hymn Jam lucis orto sidere

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.

Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;

From anger's din would hide our life;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:

Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. He that hath clean hands.

Psalm 24

THE earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is; * the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, * and prepared it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? * or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; * and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, * and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him; * even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm 19, i

THE heavens declare the glory of God; * and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

One day telleth another; * and one night certifieth another.

There is neither speech nor language; * but their voices are heard among them.

Their sound is gone out into all lands; * and their words into the ends of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun; * which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, † and runneth about unto the end of it again; * and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Psalm 19, ii

THE law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul; * the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; * the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever; * the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; * sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

Moreover, by them is thy servant taught; * and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can tell how oft he offendeth? * O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me; * so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be always acceptable in thy sight, * O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Ant. He that hath clean hands and a pure heart shall ascend into the hill of the Lord.

Hymn Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Ant. My light.

Psalm 27, i

THE Lord is my light, and my salvation; † whom then shall I fear?
* the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, † came upon me to eat up my flesh, * they stumbled and fell.

Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; * and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require; * even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle; * yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

And now shall he lift up mine head * above mine enemies round about me.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness: * I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Psalm 27, ii

HEARKEN unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; * have mercy upon me, and hear me.

My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: * Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

O hide not thou thy face from me, * nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour; * leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, * the Lord taketh me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, * and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries: * for there are false witnesses risen up against me, and such as speak wrong.

I should utterly have fainted, * but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure; * be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Psalm 28

UNTO thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: * think no scorn of me; lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I come like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee; * when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly and wicked doers, * which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

Reward them according to their deeds, * and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

Recompense them after the work of their hands; * pay them that they have deserved.

For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, † nor the operation of his hands; * therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

Praised be the Lord; * for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

The Lord is my strength, and my shield; † my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; * therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

The Lord is my strength, * and he is the wholesome defence of his Anointed.

O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: * feed them, and set them up for ever.

Ant. My light and my salvation is the Lord.

James 1, 12

BLESSED is the man that endureth temptation; † for, when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, * which the Lord hath promised to them that love him. ℞ Thanks be to God.

Br. ℞ Thou hast crowned him * With glory and worship, O Lord. Thou hast. ℣ And hast made him to have dominion of the works of thy hands. With glory. Glory be. Thou hast.

℣ Thou hast set a crown of pure gold upon his head, O Lord. ℞ And hast prevented him with the blessings of goodness.

℣ O Lord, hear my prayer. ℞ And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

STIR up, O Lord, we beseech thee, in thy Church the Spirit, wherewith blessed Josaphat, thy Martyr and Bishop, was filled, when he laid down his life for the sheep: that at his intercession, we also, being moved and strengthened by the same Spirit, may not fear to lay down our lives for our brethren. Psalm 25, i

UNTO thee, O Lord, will I lift up my soul; my God, I have put my trust in thee: * O let me not be confounded, neither let mine enemies triumph over me.

For all they that hope in thee shall not be ashamed; * but such as transgress without a cause shall be put to confusion.

Shew me thy ways, O Lord, * and teach me thy paths.

Lead me forth in thy truth, and learn me, * for thou art the God of my salvation; in thee hath been my hope all the day long.

Call to remembrance, O Lord, thy tender mercies, * and thy loving-kindnesses, which have been ever of old.

O remember not the sins and offences of my youth; * but according to thy mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodness.

Psalm 25, ii

GRACIOUS and righteous is the Lord; * therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

Them that are meek shall he guide in judgement; * and such as are gentle, them shall he learn his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth, * unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For thy Name's sake, O Lord, * be merciful unto my sin, for it is great.

What man is he, that feareth the Lord? * him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

His soul shall dwell at ease, * and his seed shall inherit the land.

The secret of the Lord is among them that fear him; * and he will shew them his covenant.

Psalm 25, iii

MINE eyes are ever looking unto the Lord; * for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; * for I am desolate, and in misery.

The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: * O bring thou me out of my troubles.

Look upon my adversity and misery, * and forgive me all my sin.

Consider mine enemies, how many they are; * and they bear a tyrannous hate against me.

O keep my soul, and deliver me: * let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.

Let perfectness and righteous dealing wait upon me; * for my hope hath been in thee.

Deliver Israel, O God, * out of all his troubles.

Ant. O my God, I have put my trust in thee: let me not be confounded.

Psalms 40, 1

IWAITED patiently for the Lord, *
and he inclined unto me, and heard my calling.

He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the mire and clay, * and set my feet upon the rock, and ordered my goings.

And he hath put a new song in my mouth, * even a thanksgiving unto our God.

Many shall see it, and fear, * and shall put their trust in the Lord.

Blessed is the man that hath set his hope in the Lord, * and turned not unto the proud, and to such as go about with lies.

O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, † like as be also thy thought which are to us-ward; * and yet there is no man that ordereth them unto thee.

If I should declare them, and speak of them, * they should be more than I am able to express.

Sacrifice, and meat-offering, thou wouldest not, * but mine ears hast thou opened.

Burnt-offerings, and sacrifice for sin, hast thou not required: * then said, I, Lo, I come;

In the volume of the book it is written of me, † that I should fulfil thy will, O my God: * I am content to do it; yea, thy law is within my heart.

Psalm 40, ii

I HAVE declared thy righteousness in the great congregation: * lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Lord, and that thou knowest.

I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart: * my talk hath been of thy truth, and of thy salvation.

I have not kept back thy loving mercy and truth * from the great congregation.

Withdraw not thou thy mercy from me, O Lord; * let thy loving-kindness and thy truth always preserve me.

For innumerable troubles are come about me; † my sins have taken such hold upon me that I am not able to look up; * yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to deliver me; * make haste, O Lord, to help me.

Psalm 40, iii

LET them be ashamed and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it; * let them be driven backward and put to rebuke, that wish me evil.

Let them be desolate, and rewarded with shame, * that say unto me, Fie upon thee, fie upon thee.

Let all those that seek thee be joyful and glad in thee; * and let such as love thy salvation say always, The Lord be praised.

Would keep us free from harm today.

From anger's din would hide our life;

Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

Psalm 54

SAVE me, O God, for thy Name's sake, * and avenge me in thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God, * and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

For strangers are risen up against me;
* and tyrants, which have not God
before their eyes, seek after my soul.

Behold, God is my helper; * the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: * destroy thou them in thy truth.

An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O Lord; *
because it is so comfortable.

For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble; * and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psalm 119, i

BLESSED are those that are undefiled in the way, * and walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, * and seek him with their whole heart;

For they who do no wickedness, *
walk in his ways.

Thou hast charged * that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.

O that my ways were made so direct,
* that I might keep thy statutes!

So shall I not be confounded, * while I have respect unto all thy commandments.

I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart, * when I shall have learned the judgements of thy righteousness.

I will keep thy ceremonies; * O
forsake me not utterly.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleans his way? * even by ruling himself after thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee; * O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.

Thy words have I hid within my heart,
* that I should not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord; * O teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I been telling * of all the judgements of thy mouth.

I have had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies, * as in all manner of riches.

I will talk of thy commandments, *
and have respect unto thy ways.

My delight shall be in thy statutes, *
and I will not forget thy word.

Psalm 119, ii

O DO well unto thy servant; * that I may live, and keep thy word.

Open thou mine eyes; * that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.

I am a stranger upon earth; * O hide not thy commandments from me.

My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire * that it hath always unto thy judgements.

Thou hast rebuked the proud; * and cursed are they that do err from thy commandments.

O turn from me shame and rebuke; *
for I have kept thy testimonies.

Princes also did sit and speak against me; * but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.

For thy testimonies are my delight, *
and my counsellors.

My soul cleaveth to the dust; * O
quicken thou me, according to thy word.

I have acknowledged my ways, and thou heardest me: * O teach me thy statutes.

Make me to understand the way of thy commandments; * and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

My soul melteth away for very heaviness; * comfort thou me according unto thy word.

Take from me the way of lying, * and cause thou me to make much of thy law.

I have chosen the way of truth, * and thy judgements have I laid before me.

I have stuck unto thy testimonies; * O
Lord, confound me not.

I will run the way of thy commandments, * when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Psalm 119, iii

TEACH me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes, * and I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; * yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; * for therein is my desire.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, * and not to covetousness.

O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity; * and quicken thou me in thy way.

O stablish thy word in thy servant, * that I may fear thee.

Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of; * for thy judgements are good.

Behold, my delight is in thy commandments; * O quicken me in thy righteousness.

Let thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord, * even thy salvation, according unto thy word.

So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers; * for my trust is in thy word.

O take not the word of thy truth utterly out of my mouth; * for my hope is in thy judgements.

So shall I always keep thy law; * yea, for ever and ever.

And I will walk at liberty; * for I seek thy commandments.

I will speak of thy testimonies also, even before kings, * and will not be ashamed.

And my delight shall be in thy commandments, * which I have loved.

My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; * and my study shall be in thy statutes.

Psalm 119, iv

O THINK upon thy servant, as concerning thy word, * wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.

The same is my comfort in my trouble; * for thy word hath quickened me.

The proud have had me exceedingly in derision; * yet have I not shrunked from thy law.

For I remembered thine everlasting judgements, O Lord, * and received comfort.

I am horribly afraid, * for the ungodly that forsake thy law.

Thy statutes have been my songs, * in the house of my pilgrimage.

I have thought upon thy Name, O Lord, in the night-season, * and have kept thy law.

This I had, * because I kept thy commandments.

Thou art my portion, O Lord, * I have promised to keep thy law.

I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart; * O be merciful unto me, according to thy word.

I called mine own ways to remembrance, * and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

I made haste, and prolonged not the time, * to keep thy commandments.

The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me; * but I have not forgotten thy law.

At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee, * because of thy righteous judgements.

I am a companion of all them that fear thee, * and keep thy commandments.

The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: * O teach me thy statutes.

Psalm 119, v

O LORD, thou hast dealt graciously with thy servant, * according unto thy word.

O learn me true understanding and knowledge; * for I have believed thy commandments.

Before I was troubled, I went wrong; * but now have I kept thy word.

Thou art good and gracious; * O teach me thy statutes.

The proud have imagined a lie against me; * but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.

Their heart is as fat as brawn; * but my delight hath been in thy law.

It is good for me that I have been in trouble; * that I may learn thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me * than thousands of gold and silver.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: * O give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; * because I have put my trust in thy word.

I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right, * and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.

O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort, * according to thy word unto thy servant.

O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live; * for thy law is my delight.

Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me; * but I will be occupied in thy commandments.

Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies, * be turned unto me.

O let my heart be sound in thy statutes, * that I be not ashamed.

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.

Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;

From anger's din would hide our life;

From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:

Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. Arise, O Lord.

Psalm 94, i

OLORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth, * thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

Arise, thou Judge of the world, * and reward the proud after their deserving.

Lord, how long shall the ungodly, * how long shall the ungodly triumph?

How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully, * and make such proud boasting?

They smite down thy people, O Lord, * and trouble thine heritage.

They murder the widow, and the stranger, * and put the fatherless to death.

And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see, * neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

Take heed, ye unwise among the people: * O ye fools, when will ye understand?

He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

Or he that nutureth the heathen, * it is he that teacheth man knowledge; shall not he punish?

The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, * that they are but vain.

Psalm 94, ii

BLESSED is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, * and teachest him in thy law;

That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversity, * until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

For the Lord will not fail his people; * neither will he forsake his inheritance;

Until righteousness turn again unto judgment: * all such as are true in heart shall follow it.

Who will rise up with me against the wicked? * or who will take my part against the evil-doers?

If the Lord had not helped me, * it had not failed but my soul had been put to silence.

But when I said, My foot hath slipt; *

thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart, * thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

Wilt thou have any thing to do with the stool of wickedness, * which imagineth mischief as a law?

They gather them together against the soul of the righteous, * and condemn the innocent blood.

But the Lord is my refuge, * and my God is the strength of my confidence.

He shall recompense them their wickedness, † and destroy them in their own malice; * yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

Psalm 108

O GOD, my heart is ready, my heart is ready; * I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have.

Awake, thou lute, and harp; * I myself will awake right early.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people; * I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

For thy mercy is greater than the heavens, * and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens, * and thy glory above all the earth.

That thy beloved may be delivered: * let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.

God hath spoken in His holiness; * I will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine; * Ephraim also is the strength of my head; Judah is my law-giver;

Moab is my wash-pot; † over Edom will I cast out my shoe; * upon Philistia will I triumph.

Who will lead me into the strong city? * and who will bring me into Edom?

Hast not thou forsaken us, O God? * and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

O help us against the enemy: * for vain is the help of man.

Through God we shall do great acts; * and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Ant. Arise, O Lord, thou judge of the world, and reward the proud after their deserving.

Psalm 102, i

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, * and let my crying come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble; * incline thine ear unto me when I call; O hear me, and that right soon.

For my days are consumed away like smoke, * and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand.

My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass; * so that I forget to eat my bread.

For the voice of my groaning, * my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness, * and like an owl that is in the desert.

I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow, * that sitteth alone upon the housetop.

Mine enemies revile me all the day long; * and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread, * and mingled my drink with weeping;

And that because of thine indignation and wrath; * for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

My days are gone like a shadow, * and I am withered like grass.

But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever; * and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

Psalm 102, ii

THOU shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion; * for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

And why? thy servants think upon her stones, * and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord; * and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty;

When the Lord shall build up Sion; *
and when his glory shall appear;

When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute, * and despiseth not their desire.

This shall be written for those that come after, * and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

For he hath looked down from his sanctuary; * out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

That he might hear the mournings of
such as are in captivity, * and deliver the children appointed unto death;

That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion, * and his worship at Jerusalem;

When the people are gathered together, * and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.

Psalm 102, iiii

HE brought down my strength in my journey, * and shortened my days.

But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age; * as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, * and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: * they all shall wax old as doth
a garment;

And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed; * but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

The children of thy servants shall continue, * and their seed shall stand
