S. Gabriel of the Sorrowful Virgin, C.

AT PRIME

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe.

✠ ✠ O God make speed to save me.

✠ O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Praise be to thee O Lord, King of eternal glory.

Hymn

Jam lucis orto sidere

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.

Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;

From anger's din would hide our life;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:

Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. He that hath clean hands.

Psalm 24

THE earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is; * the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, * and prepared it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? * or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; * and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, * and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him; * even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm 19, i

THE heavens declare the glory of God; * and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

One day telleth another; * and one night certifieth another.

There is neither speech nor language; * but their voices are heard among them.

Their sound is gone out into all lands; * and their words into the ends of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun; * which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, † and runneth about unto the end of it again; * and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Psalm 19, ii

THE law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul; * the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; * the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever; * the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; * sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

Moreover, by them is thy servant taught; * and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can tell how oft he offendeth? * O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me; * so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be always acceptable in thy sight, * O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Ant. He that hath clean hands and a pure heart shall ascend into the hill of the Lord.

Hymn Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Ant. My light.

Psalm 27, i

THE Lord is my light, and my salvation; † whom then shall I fear?
* the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, † came upon me to eat up my flesh, * they stumbled and fell.

Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; * and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require; * even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle; * yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

And now shall he lift up mine head * above mine enemies round about me.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness: * I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Psalm 27, ii

HEARKEN unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; * have mercy upon me, and hear me.

My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: * Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

O hide not thou thy face from me, * nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour; * leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, * the Lord taketh me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, * and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries: * for there are false witnesses risen up against me, and such as speak wrong.

I should utterly have fainted, * but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure; * be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Psalm 28

UNTO thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: * think no scorn of me; lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I come like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee; * when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly and wicked doers, * which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

Reward them according to their deeds, * and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

Recompense them after the work of their hands; * pay them that they have deserved.

For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, † nor the operation of his hands; * therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

Praised be the Lord; * for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

The Lord is my strength, and my shield; † my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; * therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

The Lord is my strength, * and he is the wholesome defence of his Anointed.

O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: * feed them, and set them up for ever.

Ant. My light and my salvation is the Lord.

℣. The mouth of the righteous is exercised in wisdom, and his tongue will be talking of judgement. ℟. For the Lord ordereth a good man's going.

℣. O Lord, hear my prayer. ℟. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who didst teach blessed Gabriel constantly to call to mind the sorrows of thy most gracious Mother, and through her didst exalt him to the glory of sanctity and miracles: grant us by his intercession and example so to be joined to thy Mother in her weeping; that we may likewise be saved through her protection: Who livest. ℟. Amen.

Ant. Thy loving kindness.

Psalm 26

BE thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: * my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me; * try out my reins and my heart.

For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes; * and I will walk in thy truth.

I have not dwelt with vain persons; * neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

I have hated the congregation of the wicked; * and will not sit among the ungodly.

I will wash my hands in innocency, O Lord; * and so will I go to thine altar;

That I may shew the voice of thanksgiving, * and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, * and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

O shut not up my soul with the sinners, * nor my life with the blood-thirsty;

In whose hands is wickedness, * and their right hand is full of gifts.

But as for me, I will walk innocently: * O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot standeth right: * I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Psalm 52

WHY boastest thou thyself, thou tyrant, * that thou canst do mischief;

Whereas the goodness of God * endureth yet daily?

Thy tongue imagineth wickedness, * and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.

Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness, * and to talk of lies more than righteousness.

Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt, * O thou false tongue.

Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever; * he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.

The righteous also shall see this, and fear, * and shall laugh him to scorn;

Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength; * but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God; * my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ever and ever.

I will always give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done; * and I will hope in thy Name, for thy saints like it well.

Psalm 53

THE foolish body hath said in his heart, * There is no God.

Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickedness; * there is none that doeth good.

God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, * to see if there were any that would understand, and seek after God.

But they are all gone out of the way, are altogether become abominable; * there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

Are not they without understanding that work wickedness, * eating up my people as if they would eat bread? they have not called upon God.

They were afraid where no fear was; * for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee; thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

Oh, that the salvation were given unto Israel out of Sion! * Oh, that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity!

Then should Jacob rejoice, * and Israel should be right glad.

Ant. Thy Loving-kindness, O Lord, is ever before mine eyes, and I will walk in thy truth.

Psalm 54

SAVE me, O God, for thy Name's sake, * and avenge me in thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God, * and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

For strangers are risen up against me;
* and tyrants, which have not God
before their eyes, seek after my soul.

Behold, God is my helper; * the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: * destroy thou them in thy truth.

An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O Lord; *
because it is so comfortable.

For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble; * and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psalm 55, i

HEAR my prayer, O God, * and hide not thyself from my petition.

Take heed unto me, and hear me, *
how I mourn in my prayer, and am vexed.

The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly
cometh on so fast; * for they are minded to do me some mischief, so maliciously are they set against me.

My heart is disquieted within me, *
and the fear of death is fallen upon me.

Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, * and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.

And I said, O that I had wings like a dove! * for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

Lo, then would I get me away far off,
* and remain in the wilderness.

I would make haste to escape, *
because of the stormy wind and tempest.

Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them; * for I have spied unrighteousness and strife in the city.

Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: * mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

Wickedness is therein; * deceit and guile go not out of their streets.

For it is not an open enemy, that hath done me this dishonour; * for then I could have borne it.

Neither was it mine adversary, that did magnify himself against me; * for then peradventure I would have hid myself
from him;

But it was even thou, my companion,
* my guide, and mine own familiar friend.

We took sweet counsel together, * and walked in the house of God as friends.

Let death come hastily upon them, †
and let them go down quick into hell; *
for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

Psalm 55, ii

AS for me, I will call upon God, *
and the Lord shall save me

In the evening, and morning, and at noon-day will I pray, † and that instantly; * and he shall hear my voice.

It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; * for there were many with me.

Yea, even God, that endureth for ever,
shall hear me, and bring them down; *
for they will not turn, nor fear God.

He laid his hands upon such as be at peace with him, * and he brake his covenant.

The words of his mouth were softer than butter, having war in his heart; * his words were smoother than oil, and yet be they very swords.

O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee, * and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for ever.

And as for them, * thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

The blood-thirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days: * nevertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

Ant. God is my helper, and the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

Ant. In a green pasture.

Psalm 23

THE Lord is my shepherd; *
therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture, *
and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul, * and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, † I will fear no evil; * for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me; * thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

But thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; *
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord
for ever.

Psalm 72, i

GIVE the King thy judgments, O
God, * and thy righteousness unto the King's son.

Then shall he judge thy people according unto right, * and defend the poor.

The mountains also shall bring peace,
* and the little hills righteousness unto the people.

He shall keep the simple folk by their right, * defend the children of the poor, and punish the wrong doer.

They shall fear thee, as long as the sun and moon endureth, * from one generation to another.

He shall come down like the rain into a fleece of wool, * even as the drops that water the earth.

In his time shall the righteous flourish;
* yea, and abundance of peace, so long as the moon endureth.

His dominion shall be also from the one sea to the other, * and from the flood unto the world's end.

Psalm 72, ii

THEY that dwell in the wilderness shall kneel before him; * his enemies shall lick the dust.

The kings of Tharsis and of the isles shall give presents; * the kings of Arabia and Saba shall bring gifts.

All kings shall fall down before him; * all nations shall do him service.

For he shall deliver the poor when he crieth; * the needy also, and him that hath no helper.

He shall be favourable to the simple and needy, * and shall preserve the souls of the poor.

He shall deliver their souls from falsehood and wrong; * and dear shall their blood be in his sight.

He shall live, and unto him shall be given of the gold of Arabia; * prayer shall be made ever unto him, and daily shall he be praised.

There shall be an heap of corn in the earth, high upon the hills; * his fruit shall shake like Libanus, and shall be green in the city like grass upon the earth.

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Ant. Truly God is loving †

Psalm 73, i

TRULY God is loving † unto Israel:
* even unto such as are of a clean heart.

Nevertheless, my feet were almost gone, * my treadings had well-nigh slipt.

And why? I was grieved at the wicked: * I do also see the ungodly in such prosperity.

For they are in no peril of death; * but are lusty and strong.

They come in no misfortune like other folk; * neither are they plagued like other men.

And this is the cause that they are so holden with pride, * and overwhelmed with cruelty.

Their eyes swell with fatness, * and they do even what they lust.

They corrupt other, and speak of wicked blasphemy; * their talking is against the Most High.

For they stretch forth their mouth unto the heaven, * and their tongue goeth through the world.

Psalm 73, ii

THEREFORE fall the people unto them, * and thereout suck they no small advantage.

Tush, say they, how should God perceive it? * is there knowledge in the Most High?

Lo, these are the ungodly, * these prosper in the world, and these have riches in possession:

And I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain, * and washed mine hands in innocency.

All the day long have I been punished, * and chastened every morning.

Yea, and I had almost said even as they; * but lo, then I should have condemned the generation of thy children.

Then thought I to understand this; * but it was too hard for me,

Until I went into sanctuary of God: * then understood I the end of these men;

Namely, how thou dost set them in slippery places, * and castest them down, and destroyest them.

Psalm 73, iii

OHOW suddenly do they consume, * perish, and come to a fearful end!

Yea, even like as a dream when one awaketh; * so shalt thou make their image to vanish out of the city.

Thus my heart was grieved, * and it went even through my reins.

So foolish was I, and ignorant, * even as it were a beast before thee.

Nevertheless, I am always by thee; * for thou hast holden me by my right hand.

Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel,

* and after that receive me with glory.

Whom have I in heaven but thee? * and there is none upon earth that I desire in comparison of thee.

My flesh and my heart faileth; * but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

For lo, they that forsake thee shall perish ; * thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornication against thee.

But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, † to put my trust in the Lord God, * and to speak of all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Sion.

Ant. Truly God is loving unto Israel: even unto such as are of a clean heart.

AT PRIME

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe.

✠ ✠ O God make speed to save me.

Hymn Jam lucis orto sidere

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.
Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;
From anger's din would hide our life;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:
Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.
So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.
All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;

✠ Dignáre me laudáre te, Virgo sacráta. ✠ Da mihi virtútem contra hostes tuos.

Ant. Arise, O Lord.

Psalm 94, i

O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth, * thou God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

Arise, thou Judge of the world, * and reward the proud after their deserving.

Lord, how long shall the ungodly, * how long shall the ungodly triumph?

How long shall all wicked doers speak so disdainfully, * and make such proud boasting?

They smite down thy people, O Lord, * and trouble thine heritage.

They murder the widow, and the stranger, * and put the fatherless to death.

And yet they say, Tush, the Lord shall not see, * neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

Take heed, ye unwise among the people: * O ye fools, when will ye understand?

He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? * or he that made the eye, shall he not see?

Or he that nurtureth the heathen, * it is he that teacheth man knowledge; shall not he punish?

The Lord knoweth the thoughts of man, * that they are but vain.

Psalm 94, ii

BLESSED is the man whom thou chastenest, O Lord, * and teachest him in thy law;

That thou mayest give him patience in time of adversity, * until the pit be digged up for the ungodly.

For the Lord will not fail his people; * neither will he forsake his inheritance;

Until righteousness turn again unto judgment: * all such as are true in heart shall follow it.

Who will rise up with me against the wicked? * or who will take my part against the evil-doers?

If the Lord had not helped me, * it had not failed but my soul had been put to silence.

But when I said, My foot hath slipt; * thy mercy, O Lord, held me up.

In the multitude of the sorrows that I had in my heart, * thy comforts have refreshed my soul.

Wilt thou have any thing to do with the stool of wickedness, * which imagineth mischief as a law?

They gather them together against the soul of the righteous, * and condemn the innocent blood.

But the Lord is my refuge, * and my God is the strength of my confidence.

He shall recompense them their wickedness, † and destroy them in their own malice; * yea, the Lord our God shall destroy them.

Psalm 108

O GOD, my heart is ready, my heart is ready; * I will sing and give praise with the best member that I have.

Awake, thou lute, and harp; * I myself will awake right early.

I will give thanks unto thee, O Lord, among the people; * I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

For thy mercy is greater than the heavens, * and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

Set up thyself, O God, above the heavens, * and thy glory above all the earth.

That thy beloved may be delivered: * let thy right hand save them, and hear thou me.

God hath spoken in His holiness; * I will rejoice therefore, and divide Sichem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

Gilead is mine, and Manasses is mine; * Ephraim also is the strength of my head; Judah is my law-giver;

Moab is my wash-pot; † over Edom will I cast out my shoe; * upon Philistia will I triumph.

Who will lead me into the strong city? * and who will bring me into Edom?

Hast not thou forsaken us, O God? * and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

O help us against the enemy: * for vain is the help of man.

Through God we shall do great acts; * and it is he that shall tread down our enemies.

Ant. Arise, O Lord, thou judge of the world, and reward the proud after their deserving.

Ant. Let my crying.

Psalm 102, 1

HEAR my prayer, O Lord, * and let my crying come unto thee.

Hide not thy face from me in the time of my trouble; * incline thine ear unto me when I call; O hear me, and that right soon.

For my days are consumed away like smoke, * and my bones are burnt up as it were a firebrand.

My heart is smitten down, and withered like grass; * so that I forget to eat my bread.

For the voice of my groaning, * my bones will scarce cleave to my flesh.

I am become like a pelican in the wilderness, * and like an owl that is in the desert.

I have watched, and am even as it were a sparrow, * that sitteth alone upon the housetop.

Mine enemies revile me all the day long; * and they that are mad upon me are sworn together against me.

For I have eaten ashes as it were bread, * and mingled my drink with weeping;

And that because of thine indignation and wrath; * for thou hast taken me up, and cast me down.

My days are gone like a shadow, * and I am withered like grass.

But, thou, O Lord, shalt endure for ever; * and thy remembrance throughout all generations.

Psalm 102, ii

THOU shalt arise, and have mercy upon Sion; * for it is time that thou have mercy upon her, yea, the time is come.

And why? thy servants think upon her stones, * and it pitieth them to see her in the dust.

The heathen shall fear thy Name, O Lord; * and all the kings of the earth thy Majesty;

When the Lord shall build up Sion; * and when his glory shall appear;

When he turneth him unto the prayer of the poor destitute, * and despiseth not their desire.

This shall be written for those that come after, * and the people which shall be born shall praise the Lord.

For he hath looked down from his sanctuary; * out of the heaven did the Lord behold the earth;

That he might hear the mournings of such as are in captivity, * and deliver the children appointed unto death;

That they may declare the Name of the Lord in Sion, * and his worship at Jerusalem;

When the people are gathered together, * and the kingdoms also, to serve the Lord.

Psalm 102, iii

HE brought down my strength in my journey, * and shortened my days.

But I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of mine age; * as for thy years, they endure throughout all generations.

Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth, * and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: * they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed; * but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

The children of thy servants shall continue, * and their seed shall stand fast in thy sight.

Ant. Let my crying, O Lord, come unto thee: hide not thy face from me.
