S. Boniface, B.M.

AT PRIME

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe.

✠ O God make speed to save me.
✠ O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen. Alleluia.

Hymn Jam lucis orto sidere

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.
Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;
From anger's din would hide our life;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:
Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. He that hath clean hands.

Psalm 24

THE earth is the Lord's, and all that therein is; * the compass of the world, and they that dwell therein.

For he hath founded it upon the seas, *
and prepared it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? * or who shall rise up in his holy place?

Even he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; * and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor sworn to deceive his neighbour.

He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, * and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek him; * even of them that seek thy face, O Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and
be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and
the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, † and
be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; * and
the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory? * Even the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Psalm 19, i

THE heavens declare the glory of God; * and the firmament sheweth his handy-work.

One day telleth another; * and one night certifieth another.

There is neither speech nor language;
* but their voices are heard among them.

Their sound is gone out into all lands;
* and their words into the ends of the world.

In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun; * which cometh forth as a bridegroom out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a giant to run his course.

It goeth forth from the uttermost part of the heaven, † and runneth about unto the end of it again; * and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

Psalm 19, ii

THE law of the Lord is an undefiled law, converting the soul; * the testimony of the Lord is sure, and giveth wisdom unto the simple.

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart; * the commandment of the Lord is pure, and giveth light unto the eyes.

The fear of the Lord is clean, and endureth for ever; * the judgements of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold; * sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.

Moreover, by them is thy servant taught; * and in keeping of them there is great reward.

Who can tell how oft he offendeth? * O cleanse thou me from my secret faults.

Keep thy servant also from presumptuous sins, lest they get the dominion over me; * so shall I be undefiled, and innocent from the great offence.

Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be always acceptable in thy sight, * O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Ant. He that hath clean hands and a pure heart shall ascend into the hill of the Lord.

Hymn Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son,
Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee,
Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Ant. My light.

Psalm 27, i

THE Lord is my light, and my salvation; † whom then shall I fear?
* the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, † came upon me to eat up my flesh, * they stumbled and fell.

Though an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid; * and though there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

One thing have I desired of the Lord, which I will require; * even that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his temple.

For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his tabernacle; * yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me up upon a rock of stone.

And now shall he lift up mine head * above mine enemies round about me.

Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation with great gladness: * I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord.

Psalm 27, ii

HEARKEN unto my voice, O Lord, when I cry unto thee; * have mercy upon me, and hear me.

My heart hath talked of thee, Seek ye my face: * Thy face, Lord, will I seek.

O hide not thou thy face from me, * nor cast thy servant away in displeasure.

Thou hast been my succour; * leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

When my father and my mother forsake me, * the Lord taketh me up.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, * and lead me in the right way, because of mine enemies.

Deliver me not over into the will of mine adversaries: * for there are false witnesses risen up against me, and such as speak wrong.

I should utterly have fainted, * but that I believe verily to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.

O tarry thou the Lord's leisure; * be strong, and he shall comfort thine heart; and put thou thy trust in the Lord.

Psalm 28

UNTO thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: * think no scorn of me; lest, if thou make as though thou hearest not, I come like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee; * when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

O pluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly and wicked doers, * which speak friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

Reward them according to their deeds, * and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

Recompense them after the work of their hands; * pay them that they have deserved.

For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, † nor the operation of his hands; * therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

Praised be the Lord; * for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

The Lord is my strength, and my shield; † my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped; * therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

The Lord is my strength, * and he is the wholesome defence of his Anointed.

O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: * feed them, and set them up for ever.

Ant. My light and my salvation is the Lord.

Br. R. Thou hast crowned him * With glory and worship, O Lord. Thou hast. V. And hast made him to have dominion of the works of thy hands. With glory. Glory be. Thou hast.

V. Thou hast set a crown of pure gold upon his head, O Lord. R. And hast prevented him with the blessings of goodness.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O GOD, who by the labours of blessed Boniface, thy Martyr and Bishop, didst vouchsafe to call many nations to the knowledge of thy name: mercifully grant; that we who celebrate his festival may by his advocacy find favour in thy sight. Through. R. Amen.

Ant. Thy loving kindness.

Psalm 26

BE thou my Judge, O Lord, for I have walked innocently: * my trust hath been also in the Lord, therefore shall I not fall.

Examine me, O Lord, and prove me;
* try out my reins and my heart.

For thy loving-kindness is ever before mine eyes; * and I will walk in thy truth.

I have not dwelt with vain persons;
* neither will I have fellowship with the deceitful.

I have hated the congregation of the wicked; * and will not sit among the ungodly.

I will wash my hands in innocency,
O Lord; * and so will I go to thine
altar;

That I may shew the voice of thanksgiving, * and tell of all thy wondrous works.

Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, * and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

O shut not up my soul with the sinners, * nor my life with the blood-thirsty;

In whose hands is wickedness, * and their right hand is full of gifts.

But as for me, I will walk innocently: * O deliver me, and be merciful unto me.

My foot standeth right: * I will praise the Lord in the congregations.

Psalm 52

WHY boastest thou thyself, thou tyrant, * that thou canst do mischief;

Whereas the goodness of God * endureth yet daily?

Thy tongue imagineth wickedness, * and with lies thou cuttest like a sharp razor.

Thou hast loved unrighteousness more than goodness, * and to talk of lies more than righteousness.

Thou hast loved to speak all words that may do hurt, * O thou false tongue.

Therefore shall God destroy thee for ever; * he shall take thee, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling, and root thee out of the land of the living.

The righteous also shall see this, and fear, * and shall laugh him to scorn;

Lo, this is the man that took not God for his strength; * but trusted unto the multitude of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

As for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God; * my trust is in the tender mercy of God for ever and ever.

I will always give thanks unto thee for that thou hast done; * and I will hope in thy Name, for thy saints like it well.

Psalm 53

THE foolish body hath said in his heart, * There is no God.

Corrupt are they, and become abominable in their wickedness; * there is none that doeth good.

God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, * to see if there were any that would understand, and seek after God.

But they are all gone out of the way, are altogether become abominable; * there is also none that doeth good, no not one.

Are not they without understanding that work wickedness, * eating up my people as if they would eat bread? they have not called upon God.

They were afraid where no fear was; * for God hath broken the bones of him that besieged thee; thou hast put them to confusion, because God hath despised them.

Oh, that the salvation were given unto Israel out of Sion! * Oh, that the Lord would deliver his people out of captivity!

Then should Jacob rejoice, * and Israel should be right glad.

Ant. Thy Loving-kindness, O Lord, is ever before mine eyes, and I will walk in thy truth.

Wherefore I beg blessed Mary ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Psalm 54

SAVE me, O God, for thy Name's sake, * and avenge me in thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God, * and hearken unto the words of my mouth.

For strangers are risen up against me; * and tyrants, which have not God before their eyes, seek after my soul.

Behold, God is my helper; * the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: * destroy thou them in thy truth.

An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O Lord; * because it is so comfortable.

For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble; * and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psalm 55, i

HEAR my prayer, O God, * and hide not thyself from my petition.

Take heed unto me, and hear me, * how I mourn in my prayer, and am vexed.

The enemy crieth so, and the ungodly cometh on so fast; * for they are minded to do me some mischief, so maliciously are they set against me.

My heart is disquieted within me, * and the fear of death is fallen upon me.

Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, * and an horrible dread hath overwhelmed me.

And I said, O that I had wings like a dove! * for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

Lo, then would I get me away far off, * and remain in the wilderness.

I would make haste to escape, * because of the stormy wind and tempest.

Destroy their tongues, O Lord, and divide them; * for I have spied unrighteousness and strife in the city.

Day and night they go about within the walls thereof: * mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

Wickedness is therein; * deceit and guile go not out of their streets.

For it is not an open enemy, that hath done me this dishonour; * for then I could have borne it.

Neither was it mine adversary, that did magnify himself against me; * for then peradventure I would have hid myself from him;

But it was even thou, my companion, * my guide, and mine own familiar friend.

We took sweet counsel together, * and walked in the house of God as friends.

Let death come hastily upon them, † and let them go down quick into hell; * for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

Psalm 55, ii

AS for me, I will call upon God, * and the Lord shall save me

In the evening, and morning, and at noon-day will I pray, † and that instantly; * and he shall hear my voice.

It is he that hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; * for there were many with me.

Yea, even God, that endureth for ever, shall hear me, and bring them down; * for they will not turn, nor fear God.

He laid his hands upon such as be at peace with him, * and he brake his covenant.

The words of his mouth were softer than butter, having war in his heart; * his words were smoother than oil, and yet be they very swords.

O cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall nourish thee, * and shall not suffer the righteous to fall for ever.

And as for them, * thou, O God, shalt bring them into the pit of destruction.

The blood-thirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days: * nevertheless, my trust shall be in thee, O Lord.

He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: * destroy thou them in thy truth.

An offering of a free heart will I give thee, and praise thy Name, O Lord; * because it is so comfortable.

For he hath delivered me out of all my trouble; * and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

Psalm 119, i

BLESSED are those that are undefiled in the way, * and walk in the law of the Lord.

Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, * and seek him with their whole heart;

For they who do no wickedness, * walk in his ways.

Thou hast charged * that we shall diligently keep thy commandments.

O that my ways were made so direct, * that I might keep thy statutes!

So shall I not be confounded, * while I have respect unto all thy commandments.

I will thank thee with an unfeigned heart, * when I shall have learned the judgements of thy righteousness.

I will keep thy ceremonies; * O forsake me not utterly.

Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? * even by ruling himself after thy word.

With my whole heart have I sought thee; * O let me not go wrong out of thy commandments.

Thy words have I hid within my heart, * that I should not sin against thee.

Blessed art thou, O Lord; * O teach me thy statutes.

With my lips have I been telling * of all the judgements of thy mouth.

I have had as great delight in the way of thy testimonies, * as in all manner of riches.

I will talk of thy commandments, * and have respect unto thy ways.

My delight shall be in thy statutes, * and I will not forget thy word.

Psalm 119, ii

ODO well unto thy servant; * that I may live, and keep thy word.

Open thou mine eyes; * that I may see the wondrous things of thy law.

I am a stranger upon earth; * O hide not thy commandments from me.

My soul breaketh out for the very fervent desire * that it hath always unto thy judgements.

Thou hast rebuked the proud; * and cursed are they that do err from thy commandments.

O turn from me shame and rebuke; * for I have kept thy testimonies.

Princes also did sit and speak against me; * but thy servant is occupied in thy statutes.

For thy testimonies are my delight, * and my counsellors.

My soul cleaveth to the dust; * O quicken thou me, according to thy word.

I have acknowledged my ways, and thou heardest me: * O teach me thy statutes.

Make me to understand the way of thy commandments; * and so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

My soul melteth away for very heaviness; * comfort thou me according unto thy word.

Take from me the way of lying, * and cause thou me to make much of thy law.

I have chosen the way of truth, * and thy judgements have I laid before me.

I have stuck unto thy testimonies; * O Lord, confound me not.

I will run the way of thy commandments, * when thou hast set my heart at liberty.

Ant. Wisdom hath builded her a dwelling, she hath mingled her wine, and furnished her table, alleluia.

Hymn Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One
Art with the Father and the Son;
Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess
With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue,
By act and deed, thy praise be sung:
Inflame with perfect love each sense,
That others' souls may kindle thence.

All honour, laud, and glory be,
O Jesu, Virgin-born, to thee;
Whom with the Father we adore,
And Holy Ghost, for evermore. Amen.

Ant. Thou feddest.

Psalm 119, iii

TEACH me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes, * and I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; * yea, I shall keep it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; * for therein is my desire.

Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, * and not to covetousness.

O turn away mine eyes, lest they behold vanity; * and quicken thou me in thy way.

O stablish thy word in thy servant, * that I may fear thee.

Take away the rebuke that I am afraid of; * for thy judgements are good.

Behold, my delight is in thy commandments; * O quicken me in thy righteousness.

Let thy loving mercy come also unto me, O Lord, * even thy salvation, according unto thy word.

So shall I make answer unto my blasphemers; * for my trust is in thy word.

O take not the word of thy truth utterly out of my mouth; * for my hope is in thy judgements.

So shall I always keep thy law; * yea, for ever and ever.

And I will walk at liberty; * for I seek thy commandments.

I will speak of thy testimonies also, even before kings, * and will not be ashamed.

And my delight shall be in thy commandments, * which I have loved.

My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; *

and my study shall be in thy statutes.

Psalm 119, iv

O THINK upon thy servant, as concerning thy word, * wherein thou hast caused me to put my trust.

The same is my comfort in my trouble; * for thy word hath quickened me.

The proud have had me exceedingly in derision; * yet have I not shrunked from thy law.

For I remembered thine everlasting judgements, O Lord, * and received comfort.

I am horribly afraid, * for the ungodly that forsake thy law.

Thy statutes have been my songs, * in the house of my pilgrimage.

I have thought upon thy Name, O Lord, in the night-season, * and have kept thy law.

This I had, * because I kept thy commandments.

Thou art my portion, O Lord, * I have promised to keep thy law.

I made my humble petition in thy presence with my whole heart; * O be merciful unto me, according to thy word.

I called mine own ways to remembrance, * and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

I made haste, and prolonged not the time, * to keep thy commandments.

The congregations of the ungodly have robbed me; * but I have not forgotten thy law.

At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee, * because of thy righteous judgements.

I am a companion of all them that fear thee, * and keep thy commandments.

The earth, O Lord, is full of thy mercy: * O teach me thy statutes.

Psalm 119, v

O LORD, thou hast dealt graciously with thy servant, * according unto thy word.

O learn me true understanding and knowledge; * for I have believed thy commandments.

Before I was troubled, I went wrong;
* but now have I kept thy word.

Thou art good and gracious; * O teach me thy statutes.

The proud have imagined a lie against me; * but I will keep thy commandments with my whole heart.

Their heart is as fat as brawn; * but my delight hath been in thy law.

It is good for me that I have been in trouble; * that I may learn thy statutes.

The law of thy mouth is dearer unto me * than thousands of gold and silver.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: * O give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; * because I have put my trust in thy word.

I know, O Lord, that thy judgements are right, * and that thou of very faithfulness hast caused me to be troubled.

O let thy merciful kindness be my comfort, * according to thy word unto thy servant.

O let thy loving mercies come unto me, that I may live; * for thy law is my delight.

Let the proud be confounded, for they go wickedly about to destroy me; * but I will be occupied in thy commandments.

Let such as fear thee, and have known thy testimonies, * be turned unto me.

O let my heart be sound in thy statutes, * that I be not ashamed.

Ant. Thou feddest thine own people
