AT PRIME

Our Father. Hail Mary. I believe.

✠ ✠ O God make speed to save me.
✠ O Lord, make haste to help me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen. Alleluia.

Hymn Jam lucis orto sidere

NOW that the daylight fills the sky,
We lift our hearts to God on high,
That he, in all we do or say,
Would keep us free from harm today.

Would guard our hearts and tongues
from strife;

From anger's din would hide our life;
From all ill sights would turn our eyes;
Would close our ears to vanities:

Would keep our inmost conscience pure;
Our souls from folly would secure;
Would bid us check the pride of sense
With due and holy abstinence.

So we, when this new day is gone,
And night in turn is drawing on,
With conscience by the world unstained,
Shall praise his name for victory gained.

All laud to God the Father be;
All praise, eternal Son, to thee;
All glory, as is ever meet,
To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

Ant. O go not from me, Lord.

Psalm 22, i

MY God, my God, look upon me;
why hast thou forsaken me? * and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; * and in the night-season also I take no rest.

And thou continuest holy, * O thou worship of Israel.

Our fathers hoped in thee; * they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

They called upon thee, and were holpen; * they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

But as for me, I am a worm, and no man; * a very scorn of men, and the outcast of the people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn;
* they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying,

He trusted in God, that he would deliver him; * let him deliver him, if he will have him.

But thou art he that took me out of my mother's womb; * thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet upon my mother's breasts.

I have been left unto thee ever since I was born; * thou art my God even from my mother's womb.

O go not from me, † for trouble is hard at hand, * and there is none to help me.

Psalm 22, ii

MANY oxen are come about me; *
fat bulls of Basan close me in on every side.

They gape upon me with their mouths, *
as it were a ramping and a roaring lion.

I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; * my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

My strength is dried up like a potsherd,
† and my tongue cleaveth to my gums, *
and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

For many dogs are come about me, *
and the council of the wicked layeth siege against me.

They pierced my hands and my feet; I may tell all my bones: * they stand staring and looking upon me.

They part my garments among them, *
and cast lots upon my vesture.

But be not thou far from me, O Lord; *
thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.

Deliver my soul from the sword, * my darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the lion's mouth; * thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.

I will declare thy Name unto my brethren; * in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Psalm 22, iii

O PRAISE the Lord, ye that fear him: * magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear him, all ye seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised, nor abhorred,
the low estate of the poor; * he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called unto him he heard him.

My praise is of thee in the great congregation; * my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.

The poor shall eat, and be satisfied; *
they that seek after the Lord shall praise him; your heart shall live for ever.

All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord; * and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

For the kingdom is the Lord's, * and he is the Governour among the people.

All such as be fat upon earth * have eaten and worshipped.

All they that go down into the dust shall kneel before him; * and no man hath quickened his own soul.

My seed shall serve him: * they shall be counted unto the Lord for a generation.

They shall come, and the heavens shall declare his righteousness * unto a people that shall be born, whom the Lord hath made.

Ant. O go not from me, Lord, for trouble is hard at hand, and there is none to help me.

Hymn Nunc Sancte nobis Spiritus

COME, Holy Ghost, who ever One Art with the Father and the Son; Come, Holy Ghost, our souls possess With thy full flood of holiness.

By every power, by heart and tongue, By act and deed, thy praise be sung: In flame with perfect love each sense, That others' souls may kindle thence.

O Father, that we ask be done Through Jesus Christ, thine only Son, Who, with the Holy Ghost and thee, Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

Ant. Stir up, O Lord.

Psalms 80, 1

HEAR O thou Shepherd of Israel, Thou that ledest Joseph like a sheep;* shew thyself also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubims.

Before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasses, * stir up thy strength, and come, and help us.

Turn us again, O God; * shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

O Lord God of Hosts, * how long wilt thou be angry with thy people that prayeth?

Thou feedest them with the bread of tears, * and givest them plenteousness of tears to drink.

Thou hast made us a very strife unto our neighbours, * and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Turn us again, thou God of Hosts; * shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Psalm 80, ii

THOU hast brought a vine out of Egypt; * thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

Thou madest room for it; * and when it had taken root it filled the land.

The hills were covered with the shadow of it, * and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedar-trees.

She stretched out her branches unto the sea, * and her boughs unto the River.

Why hast thou then broken down her hedge, * that all they that go by pluck off her grapes?

The wild boar out of the wood doth root it up, * and the wild beasts of the field devour it.

Turn thee again, thou God of Hosts, look down from heaven, * behold, and visit this vine;

And the place of the vineyard that thy right hand hath planted, * and the branch that thou madest so strong for thyself.

It is burnt with fire, and cut down; * and they shall perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, * and upon the son of man, whom thou madest so strong for thine own self.

And so will not we go back from thee: * O let us live, and we shall call upon thy Name.

Turn us again, O Lord God of Hosts; * shew the light of thy countenance, and we shall be whole.

Psalm 82

GOD standeth in the congregation of princes; * he is a Judge among gods.

How long will ye give wrong judgement, * and accept the persons of the ungodly?

Defend the poor and fatherless; * see that such as are in need and necessity have right.

Deliver the outcast and poor; * save them from the hand of the ungodly.

They will not be learned nor understand, but walk on still in darkness: * all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

I have said, Ye are gods, * and ye are all the children of the Most Highest.

But ye shall die like men, * and fall like one of the princes.

Arise, O God, and judge thou the earth; * for thou shalt take all heathen to thine inheritance.

Ant. Stir up, O Lord, thy strength, and come and help us.
